

Doyle Shelby Robinson

April 30, 1930 - March 31, 2019

Doyle Shelby Robinson, aged 88 years, died on Sunday, March 31, 2019.

He was born on April 30, 1930 in Marianna, Florida. The youngest child of James Monroe and Mittie O'Dessie (Ross) Robinson, Doyle grew up on a farm in Bascom where he lived until he enlisted in the U.S. Army and was sent to Korea. On June 13, 1956 Doyle married Frances Merle Olive, the love of his life, in Bascom, Florida. Doyle raised hogs and grew peanuts, corn and soybeans until selling his farm in 1982 to pay off medical bills following Frances losing her battle with breast cancer. Doyle then went to work for the Jackson County Health Department testing water wells until 1989. He then worked as a security guard for the paper mill in Donalsonville, Georgia for several years. Doyle continued to farm around Bascom and Malone for relatives and friends until his health prevented him from doing so and he retired in 2010. For many years, Doyle was a regular at Bryan's Store in Bascom where he spent hours visiting and drinking coffee.

He was preceded in death by his wife, his daughter, Catherine Frances Wasley, a granddaughter, Frances Pheigh "Frani" Robinson and all of his siblings.

Those left to cherish him are his son, Thomas "Tom" (Orallee "Chip") Robinson of DeRidder, Louisiana; son, James "Jamie" Robinson of Bainbridge, Georgia; granddaughters, Shauna (Jonathan) Blanton of DeRidder, Louisiana, Toquanna Mitchell of Marianna, Florida, Marlie Robinson of Marysville, Kansas, Haylee "Ray" Robinson of Bellefontaine, Ohio, and Alexis "Lexi" Robinson of Bainbridge, Georgia; grandsons, Lorenzo Robinson of Fairbury, Nebraska; Keegan (Brittney) Robinson of Salina, Kansas, Kyle Robinson of Bayou George, Florida, Kody Clayton of Troy, Alabama and Dylan Robinson of Bainbridge, Georgia; three great-granddaughters and three great-grandsons and a host of friends.

Doyle will be remembered for his kindness, his love of a home-cooked meal and a good fish fry.

His family would like to extend a special 'thank you' to Ben Floyd and countless others who have helped Doyle over the years when he was no longer able to cook or drive. He remained independent living on his own terms a few short miles from where he grew up.

A memorial service to allow friends and family to pay their respects will be 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. CST, Saturday, April 6, 2019 at Mount Olive Baptist Church in Bascom, FL. A pot luck dinner will be served at noon. James & Sikes Funeral Home Maddox Chapel is in charge of arrangements.

“ So very sorry for the loss of your Dear loved one. May you put faith in the words mentioned at Isaiah 26:19 and Psalm 37:29 and allow it to give you hope and comfort at this difficult time.

“ Mr. Doyle was a very kind, loving, and caring person. He would always come over to my house for Sunday dinners and it would just fill my heart when he sat at my table and ate the food that I would prepare and then talk about how much he enjoyed the food and my desserts. He will be greatly missed.
