“ Tammy was my little sister. She was always so full of life, always smiling and laughing. She always found a way to make everyone else laugh too. Although she lived several hours away from her family, she brought Keith to visit us a lot when Keith was growing up. You would think that they were attached at the hips. They were hardly ever out of each other's site. There was no denying their love for each other. I really appreciate Kevin's generosity in sharing Tammy and Keith so much. I miss Tammy more than anyone could imagine. I love you Tammy.
